

Terms of Trade

Orders

Orders are noted under the condition that the field production is successful and any force majeure that may prevent us to execute orders on time and in full.

Shipping

Shipping takes place at the purchaser's risk and expense. The delivery takes place in the best and cheapest way at our discretion, unless otherwise agreed with the buyer.

Complaint

Legitimate complaints will be gratefully received within three days after delivery. Any reduction in price or compensation is limited to and cannot exceed the invoice price of the product.

Growth Guarantee

Seller takes no responsibility for growth as weather, plant treatment, and other cultivation conditions are essential for the survival and growth of the plants.

Payment

Payment must be made within 30 days after the invoice date, unless otherwise agreed. Late payments will bear interests of 1.25% per cent as per commenced month from the date of invoice.

Certification

The certification of each product may be disclosed but will not appear in the commercial documents, unless otherwise agreed.

Subsidies

After receiving order confirmation the customer is responsibility for securing that the listed species and provenances meet the demands of existing reimbursement rules.

Børkop, August 22, 2019

